

Washington, June 12.
The following extracts are taken from the Richmond Despatch of the 10th inst.

Jackson, Miss., June 6.
Gen. Pemberton has sent word that he can hold Vicksburg; and Gen. Johnston is to take his time to organize and discipline his forces.

Mobile, June 9.

A special to the Tribune from Jackson, dated the 8th inst., says there are many rumors abroad, the most reliable of which is that Gen. Kirby Smith, instead of being at Port Hudson, has taken Milliken's Bend and cut off Gen. Grant's supplies.

Gen. Grant is slowly advancing by building parallels, which are four hundred yards from our outer works.

There is plenty of ammunition and provisions at Vicksburg, and the soldiers and citizens are confident of the result.

Our entire loss during the series of assaults will not exceed six hundred.

Calais, June 12.

The steamer St. Cloud from Vicksburg on Monday morning, has arrived.

There was heavy cannonading up the Yazoo, when the boat left, the import of which is not known.

Officers by this arrival say it is believed in the camps that a battle in our rear is highly probable. No one however, believes that Johnston is able to raise the siege.

The fight at Milliken's Bend on Saturday was of more importance than at first reported.

The rebels were 1,800 strong under Henry McCulloch.

Our forces were less than 1,000, over 600 of whom were negroes.

The rebels in their drive our forces, nearly surrounding them. The fight was conducted with energy and desperation by our forces, and the rebels were held at bay until a gunboat came to our assistance. Eye witnesses report our loss in killed 134, one hundred of whom were negroes.

The wounded was about the same number.

The list of the killed is very large, in consequence of many of the wounded being killed under the "no quarter" order.

The rebels left over 100 dead on the field, and took away several wagons of wounded.

The negroes, it is reported, fought better than their white officers, many of whom it is said skulked.

MUNDAY.

New York, June 13.
New Orleans letters of the 6th state that our lines at Port Hudson are within speaking distance of the rebels. Batteries have been erected and heavy guns mounted. Our mortar and gun-boats keep up a continuous fire into the place night and day, and the place will doubtless soon surrender.

Weather intensely hot.

Washington, June 13.
The following items are taken from Richmond papers of the 11th inst.

Jackson, Miss., June 9.
Our scouts report the pickets around Vicksburg as ten miles deep. Every means of approach is closely guarded. The greatest care and courage are required to reach Vicksburg.

Gen. Grant communicates with the fleet by signals seen night and day, betokening movements it is thought.

The firing of the enemy's mortars were heard at intervals of two seconds all night, and was continued this morning.

There is nothing from Port Hudson.

New York, June 14.
The Herald's headquarters army of the Potomac dispatch of the 13th says affairs are unchanged.

The enemy display a large force in the vicinity of Frederickburg, but make no demonstrations except picket lines and occasional artillery.

Longstreet's and Ewell's corps are near Culpepper, preparing for a movement on our right.

Firing was heard in the direction of the United States Ford last night and this morning.

Another dispatch, dated Third Army Corps, June 13th, says movements of Lee in the direction of Culpepper have been in a larger scale than at first supposed, embracing all his army except about ten thousand, which remain opposite Falmouth.

No doubt Lee intends to risk everything on a determined effort to cross the Rappahannock and assume the offensive.

The Harper's Ferry correspondent of the Herald states that it is reported by our cavalry that a rebel force of infantry and artillery passed through Sperryville, Tuesday last, the column occupying three hours in moving.

It is thought the rebels intend moving into Western Virginia, where they will make a bold and destructive raid, as we are not prepared for them in that quarter.

On Thursday a battalion of the Vermont cavalry had a brisk fight with rebel cavalry at Edward's Ferry, and drove them back across the river, where they had a heavy infantry support.

TUESDAY MORNING.

Harrisburg, June 15.
Dispatches received to-day from operators at Chambersburg and Hagerstown, give information of negroes who have arrived there to the effect that rebel cavalry arrived at Perryville, and Martinsburg about noon, and at the latter place there had been considerable hand fighting.

Gen. McRae was contesting the advance of the rebels.

Telegraph communication is destroyed between Winchester and Martinsburg, the lines having been broken by the rebels about ten o'clock this forenoon.

Gen. Reynolds has been driven by a large force of rebels, from Perryville to Bunker Hill.

The enemy are also at Winchester.

All of Gen. Lee's army is moving. The tidings from Muddy Branch and Nolan's Ferry, indicate that war has been going on there.

The Capital and principle cities and towns of Pennsylvania are in absolute danger.

The people of this State must respond if they do not want to experience all the ravages and horrors of war.

Every arrangement for quick transportation of troops to this point has been completed, under the direction of General Couch.

Chambersburg, June 15.

Lieut Palmer, just returned from Green castle, had to fight his way out two miles this side of that place. He reports that the enemy are advancing in three columns, one towards Waynesboro and Gettysburg; one direct to Chambersburg, and one towards Mercersburg and Cove Mountain.

It is not known whether they will proceed in short columns or concentrate.

A large fire is seen in the direction of Green castle now.

Palmer reports the column at Green castle about five thousand strong, principally cavalry, supported by infantry and artillery.

Harrisburg, June 15.
To Collector Thomas, of Philadelphia:

The President calls for one hundred thousand men for a term not exceeding six months. All men so raised are to be credited to the draft.

Gen. Lee's army is approaching in force. We must have men immediately to check him. Can you not raise a force at once?

A. O. CURTIN.

Cincinnati, June 15.

Gov. Todd has issued a proclamation calling out 30,000 troops for the defense of the border.

Albany, June 15.
The Governor received to-day a telegram from Washington, calling for 20,000 militia men immediately.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Important Notice.

To FEMALES.—If any one suggestion is more desirable than another, it is the announcement of a relief for the smoothly inferring so common to the sex, and the violence of which is only known to themselves. Many a good constitution sinks under it, while friends wonder the cause. The current system becomes affected by the great strain, and an complaint continual, for relief. To more perfectly relieve the suffering, and to give a remedy, we have made a new invention, which is what HUNTER'S Tonic. Also we have performed in most extreme cases, and most undulated testimonials confirm the duration.

Asking the confidence of all who can appear to the relief from such much suffering, and to accept this valued preparation at truly merciful terms, and name and fame of true Androgyne is the wish of JOHN L. HUNTER,

DEATHS.

In New York, Monday, 13th inst., REBECCA EMMA, Brown, second daughter of Dr. A. Woodruff Brown.

On the 18th of May, 1863, at "Bonnet Carré," of typhoid fever, GEORGE VAN VLIET, in the 22nd year of his age; a member of Co H, 177th reg't N. Y. S. V.

The unexpected tidings of the death of our friend have made many sad hearts in this community, where he was so well known and esteemed. He was a young man of great promise. The motto of his life was "in doing good to others." Wherever he was known, he was recognized as an earnest and decided Christian. He had commenced his preparatory studies for the ministry, had finished his course at Barr Seminary, Manchester, and was about to enter Hamlin College, when he felt it his duty to enlist in the service of his country. He was a Christian patriot. The love of his country was next to the love of his Savior. He carried his religion with him to the camp, where by his devoted Christian labors, he gathered around him the respect and friendship of many of his companions in the regiment.—Colors Cataract.
